NOTICE TO DEFENDANT: MARY E. CRUSER, and DOES 1 to 10
(AVISO AL DEMANDADO):

YOU ARE BEING SUED BY PLAINTIFF:
(LO ESTÁ DEMANDANDO EL DEMANDANTE):
WEST HOTEL L.P., a California limited partnership

SUM-130

FOR COURT USE ONLY
(SOLO PARA USO DE LA CORTE)

You have 5 CALENDAR DAYS after this summons and legal papers are served on you to file a written response at this court and have a copy served on the plaintiff. (To calculate the five days, count Saturday and Sunday, but do not count other court holidays. If the last day falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or a court holiday then you have the next court day to file a written response.) A letter or phone call will not protect you. Your written response must be in proper legal form if you want the court to hear your case. There may be a court form that you can use for your response. You can find these court forms and more information at the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp), your county law library, or the courthouse nearest you. If you cannot pay the filing fee, ask the court clerk for a fee waiver form. If you do not file your response on time, you may lose the case by default, and your wages, money, and property may be taken without further warning from the court.

There are other legal requirements. You may want to call an attorney right away. If you do not know an attorney, you may want to call an attorney referral service. If you cannot afford an attorney, you may be eligible for free legal services from a nonprofit legal services program. You can locate these nonprofit groups at the California Legal Services Web site (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org), the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp), or by contacting your local court or county bar association.

Tiene 5 DÍAS DE CALENDARIO después de que le entreguen esta citación y papeles legales para presentar una respuesta por escrito en esta corte y hacer que se entregue una copia al demandante. (Para calcular los cinco días, cuente los sábados y los domingos pero no los otros días feriados de la corte. Si el último día cae en sábado o domingo, o en un día en que la corte esté cerrada, tiene hasta el próximo día de corte para presentar una respuesta por escrito). Una carta o una llamada telefónica no lo protegen. Su respuesta por escrito tiene que estar en formato legal correcto si desea que procesen su caso en la corte. Es posible que haya un formulario que usted pueda usar para su respuesta. Puede encontrar estos formularios de la corte y más información en el Centro de Ayuda de las Cortes de California (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp/espanol/), en la biblioteca de leyes de su condado o en la corte que le quede más cerca. Si no puede pagar la cuota de presentación, pida al secretario de la corte que le dé un formulario de exención de pago de cuotas. Si no presenta su respuesta a tiempo, puede perder el caso por incumplimiento y la corte le podrá quitar su sueldo, dinero y bienes sin más advertencia.

Hay otros requisitos legales. Es recomendable que llame a un abogado inmediatamente. Si no conoce a un abogado, puede llamar a un servicio de remisión a abogados. Si no puede pagar a un abogado, es posible que cumpla con los requisitos para obtener servicios legales gratuitos de un programa de servicios legales sin fines de lucro. Puede encontrar estos grupos sin fines de lucro en el sitio web de California Legal Services, (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org), en el Centro de Ayuda de las Cortes de California, (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp/espanol/) o poniéndose en contacto con la corte o el colegio de abogados locales.

TNDC House Rules

These House Rules serve as an attachment to the Lease between Management and you as a resident.

House Rules are necessary to define acceptable activities and behaviors in an environment of community living. The House Rules are not meant to infringe on the rights of any one resident, but are meant to protect the rights of all residents, the owners, Management, and the community as a whole.

The House Rules apply equally to all residents.

These House Rules are an addendum to the Residential Lease Agreement and are equally enforceable. Any violation of the House Rules is considered a material breach of the lease agreement and legal action may be taken to remedy the breach, up to and including eviction.

These rules may be changed from time to time provided you receive at least 30 days notice and an opportunity to present comments.

1. Rent

- A. All rents are due and payable in full on the first day of each month. Payment is to be made in the form of a personal check, money order, or cashier's check only. No cash or partial payments or third-party checks will be accepted. All checks should be made payable to the name of your property.
- B. A late charge of $20.00 will be added to your rent in any given month that your rent payment is not made within five (5) days of the due date. If your rent is paid late, you may be subject to eviction.

- D. Any monies received will first be applied to any unpaid rent or other outstanding balance you have with TNDC. The remainder will be applied to the current rent.

2. Insurance

Residents are encouraged to obtain renter's insurance to protect against loss of personal property.

Management is not responsible for damages to resident's personal property caused by acts or events beyond the control of Management, such as fire, flood, theft, vandalism, resident abuse or neglect, bedbugs, acts of nature, terrorist acts, etc.

If you lose your key, you will be charged a fee for the re-keying service provided.

If the lock requires changing for any reasons other than the lock's failure to operate correctly due to normal wear and tear, you will be charged the cost of labor and materials. This lock charge will be assessed in cases including, but not limited to:

- 1) Abuse of the lock by a household member, guest, friend, or relative

You have the right to politely question the presence of anyone in the building who is unknown to you. Management requests that you report suspicious persons to a staff person immediately.

5. Visitor Policy & Unsupervised Minors

Minor household members are to be accompanied by an adult household member while utilizing any common areas.

A "visitor" is an individual adult or minor whose name does not appear on the Residential Rental Agreement for the premises as a "tenant." When a visitor arrives at a property with a front desk, the front desk person will contact you by telephone. If you do not have a telephone, you will have to make alternative arrangements so as to be available to your visitor(s). We do not have staff available to go to your unit to let you know when your visitor(s) have arrived.

15. Right to Reasonable Accommodation

It is the policy of the Tenderloin Neighborhood Development Corporation (TNDC) to fully comply with federal regulations in providing reasonable accommodations when a resident has need of them and requests them from management.

If you have a physical or mental disability, and as a result of this disability you need:

- a. A change in the rules or policies that would give you an equal chance to live here and use the facilities or take part in programs on site.
- b. A change or repair to your unit or a special type of unit that would give you an equal chance to live here and use the facilities or take part in programs on site.
- c. A change or repair in some other part of the building that would give you an equal chance for you to live in the building and use the facilities or take part in programs on site.

A healthcare professional must confirm in writing that the resident is disabled and needs the request fulfilled. If, after confirmation, management determines that fulfilling the request would pose an undue administrative or financial burden, or a fundamental change to the program, management may offer an alternative solution or deny the request. Should the tenant alter the unit, the unit must be restored to original condition upon surrendering the premises.

16. Mold and Mildew

It is our goal to maintain the highest quality living environment for our residents. Therefore, know that Management has inspected the unit prior to leasing and knows of no damp or wet building materials, and knows of no mold or mildew contamination.

The resident is hereby notified that mold and mildew, however, can grow if the premises are not properly maintained or ventilated. If moisture is allowed to accumulate in the unit, it can cause mold and mildew to grow. It is important that residents keep the interior of the unit clean and that they promptly notify Management of any leaks, moisture problems, and/or mold and mildew growth.

The resident agrees to maintain the premises in a manner that prevents the occurrence of an infestation of mold or mildew on the premises. The resident agrees to uphold this responsibility in part by complying with the following list of responsibilities:

- a. The resident agrees to keep the unit free of dirt or debris that can harbor mold and mildew.
- b. The resident agrees to immediately report to Management any water intrusion, such as plumbing leaks, drips or "sweating pipes."
- c. The resident agrees to notify Management of overflows from bathroom or kitchen, especially in cases where the overflow may permeate walls or cabinets.
- d. The resident agrees to report to Management any significant mold or mildew-like growth on surfaces inside the premises that cannot be removed by simply applying a common household cleaner and wiping the area.
- e. The resident agrees to allow Management to enter the unit to inspect and make necessary repairs.

- g. The resident agrees to use exhaust fans whenever cooking, dishwashing, or cleaning.
- h. The resident agrees to report to Management any inoperable doors or windows.
- i. The resident agrees to use all reasonable care to close all windows and other openings in the premises to prevent outdoor water from penetrating in to the interior of the unit.
- j. The resident agrees to clean and dry any visible moisture on windows, walls and other surfaces, including personal property, as soon as is reasonably possible. (Note: Mold and mildew can grow on damp surfaces within 24 to 48 hours.)
- k. The resident agrees to notify Management of any problems with the air-conditioning or heating systems that are discovered by the resident.
- l. The resident agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Management from any actions, claims, losses, damages or expenses, including but not limited to, attorney's fees that Management may sustain or incur as a result of the negligence of the resident or any guest or other person living in, occupying or using the premises.

Failure to maintain the premises in accordance with these responsibilities may result in the resident being charged for some or all of the expenses incurred to correct mold or mildew conditions in a unit.

17. Megan's Law

The California Department of Justice, Sheriff's Departments, Police Departments serving jurisdictions of 200,000 or more and many other local law enforcement authorities maintain for public access a database of the location of persons required to register pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 290.4 of the Penal Code. The database is updated on a quarterly basis and is a source of information about the presence of these individuals in any neighborhood.

Callers must have specific information about individuals they are checking. Information regarding neighborhoods is not available through the "900" number telephone service.

Registered Sex Offender information can be accessed through CD-ROM or by calling (900) 463-0400.

18. Drug-Free Housing

"Drug-related criminal activity" means the illegal manufacture, sale, distribution, use, or possession with intent to manufacture, sell, distribute, or use of controlled substances (as defined in section 102 of the Controlled Substance Act (21 U.S.C. 802)).

- a. Resident, any members of the resident's household or a guest or other person under the resident's control shall not engage in any act intended to facilitate criminal activity, including drug-related criminal activity, on or near project premises.
- b. Resident or members of the resident's household will not permit the dwelling unit to be used for, or to facilitate criminal activity, including drug-related criminal activity, regardless of whether the individual engaging in such activity is a member of the household or guest.

- d. Resident, any members of the resident's household or guest or other person under the resident's control shall not engage in acts of violence or threats of violence, including, but not limited to, the unlawful discharge of firearms on or near the premises.
- e. VIOLATION OF THE ABOVE PROVISIONS SHALL BE A MATERIAL VIOLATION OF THE LEASE AND GOOD CAUSE FOR TERMINATION OF TENANCY. A single violation of any of the provisions of this addendum shall be deemed a serious violation and a material noncompliance with the lease. It is understood and agreed that a single violation shall be good cause for termination of the lease. Unless otherwise provided by law, proof of violation shall not require criminal conviction, but shall be by a preponderance of the evidence.

19. Storage

TNDC does not provide any additional storage beyond the unit itself. Any personal effects that do not fit in your unit must be stored outside the building.

- a. Do not store personal property in the corridors, hallways, lobby or other common areas. Fire department regulations forbid the blocking of stairwells and doorways by any object. It is important that the common areas of the building are easily accessible and free of excess furniture and plants.
- b. Management will dispose of any personal effects left in the buildings common areas.
- c. Nothing at all may be stored on the fire escapes or window ledges. This includes bicycles, boxes, personal items, plants, etc.
- d. The use or storage of toxins, gasoline, cleaning solvent or other combustibles in the building is dangerous and prohibited.

20. Conduct

All residents, guests and building staff are required to treat each other with respect and courtesy at all times. The community is made up of a diversity of people with a wide variety of likes and dislikes. There are times when you will need to exercise patience and good communication skills.

- a. In accordance with California Code WIC 5150, when any resident demonstrates that they are a danger to others or to him or herself, or are gravely disabled, an appropriate emergency evaluation and intervention will be made by a mental health professional.

If you feel that you are in physical danger, you are encouraged to report this to the police and follow their recommendations. Building staff will report incidents to the police and are required to record all incidents. Violation of this policy will result in appropriate actions by management up to and including in loss of TNDC housing.

21. Miscellaneous
